February 5th On February 5th our High School Youth will be collecting food and monetary donations for Emergency Family Assistance Association (EFAA). We are asking for your support so EFAA can continue to help those in need. Please bring in some of the items listed below and place them in the designated collection containers in the narthex. (EFAA has served low-income residents of Boulder County since 1918. Some of their services include: food, emergency shelter, gas, bus fare, car repair, funds for medical needs, rent and utility payments, basic household furniture, casework services and tutoring for youth in their programs.)
